May 9-12, 2006
Dear Friends and Colleagues,

After the catastrophic Tsunami in Asia-Pacific last year, many of the local and foreigners lost their lives and properties. A large number of our global friends and relatives have been injured. Many more are still missing. However, we have seen new waves of global cares, hopes and collaborations from all over the world, in the scale that we have never seen before.

As the year 2006 is rapidly approaching, we are excited that our distinguished friends and colleagues in the field of Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) will be together once again in Thailand to reflect and exchange our views and experiences on the past, present and future events. On behalf of the organizing committee for the APOSHO 22 Conference and Exhibition, we, for the second time, would like to cordially invite you and your associates to join other colleagues in the APOSHO 22 in Bangkok. The theme for this conference has been chosen to reflect our global trend of living and working together in the age of globalization, collaboration, and liberalization Free Trade Agreement, and all. So, 2006 shall be the year of renewing and enhancing our commitment and collaboration in OSH in the Asia Pacific Regions for our safer and better world “Enhancing Occupational Safety and Health in Asia Pacific”. Let's see what you have in mind for any great ideas, means or programs to make this dream happen in reality.

In order to make this a great event for everyone and to recognize the collaborative efforts for the OSH development in Thailand, we decided to organize this APOSHO 22 Conference and Exhibition in conjunction with Thailand’s National Safety Week in May 2006. This will be the biggest event technical seminars and exhibitions on OSH ever held in Thailand.

In addition to the networking and technical gains for those who attend the APOSHO 22 will have the greatest time in Thailand as you will be enjoying our delightful Thai foods and hospitalities as well as the fabulous entertainments and sight-seeing that we have prepared for you.

Come and join hands with us in Bangkok during May 9-12, 2006.
